

EXTENDING ENTITLEMENT

Under 'Extending Entitlement' every young person in Wales has a basic entitlement to:

- education, training and work experience – tailored to their needs;
- basic skills which open doors to a full life and promote social inclusion;
- a wide and varied range of opportunities to participate in volunteering and active citizenship;
- high quality, responsive, and accessible services and facilities;
- independent, specialist careers advice and guidance and student support and counselling services;
- personal support and advice – where and when needed and in appropriate formats – with clear ground rules on confidentiality;
- advice on health, housing benefits and other issues provided in accessible and welcoming settings;
- recreational and social opportunities in a safe and accessible environment;
- sporting, artistic, musical and outdoor experiences to develop talents, broaden horizons and promote rounded perspectives including both national and international contexts;
- the right to be consulted, to participate in decision-making, and to be heard on all matters which concern them or have an impact on their lives.

in an environment where there is :

- a positive focus on achievement overall and what young people have to contribute;
- a focus on building young people's capacity to become independent, make choices and participate in the democratic process; and
- a celebration of young people's successes.
